Dear Dr. / Prof. Host Name,

I am writing to apply for the postdoctoral position in research area. I completed / expect to complete my PhD in field at institution, where my work has focused on main topic.

My doctoral research developed experience in methods, data, instrumentation, or theory. A key result of this work was brief contribution. These skills align closely with your group's work on specific topic.

As a postdoctoral researcher, I would like to pursue future research direction. I see strong opportunities to connect this program with the expertise and facilities available at institution.

Thank you for considering my application. I would be very happy to discuss how my experience and research plans could contribute to your group.

Sincerely,
